Matthew Lewis Robinson (Respondent) has been advised of the right to receive a Notice of Intention to Prohibit from Further Participation (Notice) detailing Respondent's violations of law for which an Order of Prohibition from Further Participation (Prohibition Order) may be issued under 12 U.S.C. § 1818(e).

Respondent was further advised of the right to a hearing on the Notice under 12 U.S.C. § 1818(e) and 12 C.F.R. Part 308, subparts A & B. Respondent waived certain rights under those provisions on October 2, 2025, and consented to the issuance of an Order of Prohibition from Further Participation (Consent Agreement) with a representative of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's (FDIC) Legal Division.

The FDIC determined and Respondent neither admits nor denies that on or about August 20, 2022 while working as a relationship banker (teller), he stole $50,997.96 from the drive-through teller drawer of the Short Pump branch of Truist Bank which resulted in a financial loss of $50,997.96 to the Bank and a financial gain in an equal amount to Respondent.

2. As described in paragraph 1, Respondent violated laws.
3. Respondent's violations caused the Bank to suffer financial loss, and Respondent received financial gain.
4. Respondent's violations involved personal dishonesty.

The FDIC accepts the Consent Agreement and issues the following:

 - d. voting for a director or serving or acting as an institution-affiliated party.

7. The Prohibition Order is enforceable under 12 U.S.C. § 1818(i), and any violation of the Prohibition Order may result in additional penalties under 12 U.S.C. § 1818(j).
8. The Prohibition Order does not waive any right, power, or authority of the United States; federal, state, or local agencies; or the FDIC as Receiver.
