

(3) The FDIC finds that Applicant has demonstrated satisfactory evidence of rehabilitation.

(4) The FDIC finds that Applicant has demonstrated substantial good cause for waiver of the requirement that an insured depository institution file a Section 19 application on his behalf and further finds that this requirement should be waived.

(5) The FDIC finds that Applicant's participation directly or indirectly in the conduct of the affairs of any insured depository institution, in any position, would not pose a threat to the safety or soundness of any insured depository institution or the interests of depositors, nor would such participation threaten to impair public confidence in any insured depository institution.

ORDER

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that Wei Wu is permitted to file his Section 19 application on his own behalf and that this Section 19 application to participate directly or indirectly in the conduct of the affairs of any insured depository institution is APPROVED, provided that prior to participating in the affairs of an insured depository institution, Applicant must supply that insured depository institution with a copy of this ORDER GRANTING PERMISSION TO FILE APPLICATION AND CONSENT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE CONDUCT OF THE AFFAIRS OF ANY INSURED DEPOSITORY INSTITUTION, and provided that Applicant must be covered by a fidelity bond to the same extent as others with a similar position at that insured depository institution.

This consent applies only to the offense described in paragraph 1 above.

Dated this 30th day of January, 2018.

_____/s/_____
Patricia A. Colohan
Associate Director
Division of Risk Management Supervision