On July 9, 1984, the FDIC issued an Order of Removal from Office and Prohibition from Further Participation ("Order") against Gerald P. Brickner ("Applicant") under 12 U.S.C. § 1818(e) based on his misconduct as an institution-affiliated party of Bank of Hoven, Hoven, South Dakota, which has since been renamed as Plains Commerce Bank ("Bank").

On June 18, 1997, the FDIC modified the Order to allow the Applicant to serve as a director of the Bank under 12 U.S.C. § 1818(e)(7)(B). The Applicant has served as a director of the Bank since obtaining this modification.

On August 2, 2000, the FDIC again modified the Order to allow the Applicant to handle the Bank's credit life insurance business under 12 U.S.C. § 1818(e)(7)(B).

By letter dated October 5, 2015, the Applicant asked the FDIC to terminate the Order under 12 U.S.C. § 1818(e)(7)(B).

After fully considering all the facts and information relating to the request, the FDIC finds that the Applicant has demonstrated his fitness to participate in any manner in the conduct of the affairs of the Bank or any other bank, showed that his participation would not pose a risk to the Bank or any other bank, and established that his participation would not erode public confidence in the Bank or any other bank.

Accordingly, the Order of Removal from Office and Prohibition from Further Participation that the FDIC issued against the Applicant on July 9, 1984, as modified by the FDIC on June 18, 1997 and August 2, 2000, is hereby TERMINATED.

Pursuant to delegated authority.

Dated this 18th day of August, 2016.
