Jason McMillan (Respondent) was advised of the right to receive a Notice of Intention to Prohibit from Further Participation (Notice) detailing Respondent's violations of law or regulations, unsafe or unsound banking practices, and breaches of fiduciary duties for which an Order of Prohibition from Further Participation (Prohibition Order) may be issued under 12 U.S.C. § 1818(e).

Respondent was further advised of the right to a hearing on the Notice under 12 U.S.C. § 1818(e) and 12 C.F.R. Part 308, subparts A & B. Respondent waived certain rights under those provisions on August 25, 2021, and consented to the issuance of the Prohibition Order by entering into a Stipulation and Consent to the Issuance of an Order of Prohibition from Further Participation (Consent Agreement) with a representative of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's (FDIC) Legal Division.

The FDIC determined and Respondent neither admits nor denies the following:

1. Respondent used his position at Truist Bank (Bank) as a Senior Vice President and Commercial Loan Officer to steal the identity of a legitimate Bank customer. Respondent thereupon obtained four loans in the customer's name, and also in the name of a fictitious entity created by Respondent, which Respondent tied to the customer in the Bank's records, without the customer's knowledge or consent.

2. As described in paragraph 1, Respondent violated laws, engaged in unsafe or unsound practices in connection with the Bank, and breached Respondent's fiduciary duties owed to the Bank.

3. Respondent's violations, practices, and breaches caused the Bank to suffer financial loss, and Respondent received financial gain.

4. Respondent's violations, practices, breaches involved personal dishonesty and demonstrated Respondent's willful and/or continuing disregard for the safety or soundness of the Bank.

The FDIC accepts the Consent Agreement and issues the following:

7. The Prohibition Order is enforceable under 12 U.S.C. § 1818(i), and any violation of the Prohibition Order may result in additional penalties under 12 U.S.C. § 1818(j).
